Imagine a Bible college committed to the absolute necessity and sufficiency of the Scriptures for all of life and ministry—a place where growing in love for Jesus Christ and actively serving in His Church are as important as pursuing an academic degree—a home where students are servants and part of a caring family. Imagine experiencing all of this while surrounded by the beauty of God’s creation.

GOSPEL HERALDS | APPALACHIAN BIBLE COLLEGE “...Because Life is for Service”

Matthew Hock
Montevideo, Uruguay; Senior, Interdisciplinary
I often see myself as the prodigal son in Jesus’ Luke 15 parable: sometimes being tempted to pursue luxuries, comfort, and wealth. I know for sure, though, that God’s will for me is not personal gain, but living a life of eternal worth.

Daniel Miller
Albany, OR; Junior, Pastoral
When I was 12 years old, the Lord showed me that I was living for myself and not for Him. I decided to give my life fully to Him. Praise the Lord for guiding me back home to Himself!

Hannah Bailey
Jamestown, NY; Junior, Youth and Family
Every day I am grateful for God’s love. Even though I have failed Him so many times, His love never fails and is always abounding in my life.

Zachary Rinehart
Mount Hope, WV; Junior, Camping
With God as my Father, I can always run to Him and He will be waiting with open arms. Regardless of the many times I have and will disappoint my heavenly Father, He still desires a close relationship with me.

Jennifer Akers
Ft. Ashby, WV; Senior, Music
God saved me from my sins and gave me forgiveness through Christ. His love for me is new and marvelous every day, and I am boundlessly thankful to Jesus Christ for making it possible to experience true and endless forgiveness.

Brittany Best
Mount Hope, WV; Senior, Music
The Father’s love has been an ever-present source of strength and peace in my life. I’m thankful that God welcomed me into His family at a young age. It is my desire to display Christ’s love to others through song and through relationships.

Michaela Barrios
Wooster, OH; Junior, Youth and Family
I have learned that the Father’s love and forgiveness reach not only to those like the prodigal son, but also to those like the older son and to me personally. God is showing me how to live with compassion and humility.

Lauren Willoughby
Minas, Uruguay; Grad 2015, Youth and Family
I have been able to call heaven my home since I was 9 years old. Ever since then I have been learning to be in my Father’s presence and longing to go to my heavenly home. I want to help others find their way home to God, too.
